

<2025 [2nd News] > Annual Meeting 2024 with the Graduate School of Occupational Health, the Catholic University of Korea (Posted on February 17, 2025)

In total of 16 members (6 faculty members and 10 residents) from the Institute of Industrial Ecological Sciences (IIES) visited the Graduate School of Occupational Health, the Catholic University of Korea for the annual meeting from January 23 to 25, 2025. This annual meeting has been implemented based on the agreement on academic cooperation, which was signed in February 2003 between IIES and the Graduate School of Occupational Health, the Catholic University of Korea. The participants from both institutions joined several meetings to introduce their research activities to each other and tours at Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. and Kangbuk Samsung Hospital provided a valuable opportunity for IIES members to understand on-site Occupational Health related activities in Korea.

Chairpersons of the Annual Meeting
Prof. Myong (CUK) & Prof. Eguchi (UOEH)

Research Presentation by Lecturer Hino

From a meeting

Commemorative photograph