

<2024 [24th News] > Prof. Eguchi Served as a Panelist at the 38th Asia-Pacific Occupational Safety and Health Organization Conference in Thailand (Posted on December 10, 2024)

<Prof. Eguchi Served as a Panelist at the 38th Asia-Pacific Occupational Safety and Health Organization Conference in Thailand>

Prof. Hisashi Eguchi, Dept. of Mental Health served as a panelist at the Special Wrap-up Panel Discussion “Towards the Sustainability on Safety, Health and Wellbeing”, and provided his lecture on the theme of “Key Lessons from Japan’s Occupational Health Experience” on November 16 at the 38th Asia-Pacific Occupational Safety and Health Organization Conference which was held in Bangkok, Thailand from November 14 to 17, 2024. Established in 1985, the Asia-Pacific Occupational Safety and Health Organization (APOSHO) is an organization of non-profit safety and health organizations mainly in Asia, with the aim of raising awareness of occupational safety and health and promoting understanding and cooperation in occupational safety and health activities in the Asia Pacific region. The conference is held once a year on a rotating basis in each member country, and this year the 38th conference was held in Thailand.

You can find the program of the 38th APOSHO in Thailand from: <https://aposhho2024.com/index.php/program>

Panel Discussion

With panelists