

<2025 [17th]> Assoc. Prof. Le Tran Ngoan, Hanoi Medical University visited UOEH (Posted on Sept. 22, 2025)

On Wednesday, September 3, Assoc. Prof. Le Tran Ngoan from the Department of Occupational Health at the Institute of Preventive Medicine and Public Health, Hanoi Medical University, visited UOEH to pay a courtesy call on President Ueta and other faculty members of UOEH, as well as to encourage Vietnamese students currently enrolled in our Graduate School of Medical Science.

After the meeting with President Ueda, Vice President Horie (Director of the International Center), and Prof. Hisaoka (Dean of the Graduate School of Medical Science), Assoc. Prof. Ngoan also held a meeting with the Vietnamese graduate students to discuss future research activities. As an alumnus who earned his PhD at UOEH, he provided enthusiastic advice to the students.
