

<2026 [18th News]> International Center was awarded Chairperson's Commendation (Posted on Aug. 7, 2026)

On July 28, the International Center, together with Prof. Masayoshi Zaitzu (Center for Research of the Aging Workforce), Prof. Hisashi Eguchi (Dept. of Mental Health) and the Research Support Section of the University Administrative Office, received Chairperson's Commendation in recognition of significant contributions to promoting the international activities of our students, advancing the University's international collaboration and global reputation, and supporting student participation in the ILO Youth Congress "Call to Action" Pitch Contest, which culminated in a student team from receiving the Japan Association for the 2025 World Exposition Award.

The Chairperson's Commendation is an award presented with the aim of invigorating organizational activities and boosting staff morale. It is conferred upon organizations or groups that have made significant contributions in either of the following areas:

1. Improvement in the administration and management of the university
2. Enhancement of the university's honor and reputation

The International Center will continue to dedicate our efforts to further promoting the University's international collaboration and exchange activities.
